

REGULATIONS

DokuBaku IDFF 2022, 21-25 September

Directorate of the Festival:

DokuBaku is the first and the only independent International Documentary Film Festival in Azerbaijan, which holds the competition for non-fiction.

12-20 October 2017

Imam Hasanov,
founder and director of DokuBaku

Festagent

1. General
2. Program
3. Submission guidelines
4. Awards
5. The Jury/ Audience
6. Conclusion/ Final provisions

1. General

1.1. The Founders of the Festival:

DokuBaku IDFF (hereinafter the Festival) was founded by Imam Hasanov. He is director of the festival.

Organizers:

"Free Art" and (AZ), "DokuBaku International Documentary Film Festival" (AZ)

Address: 103, Shamil Azizbayov Str. Baku, Azerbaijan;

Tel: + 994503759959 (AZ)

1.2. Status of the Festival/ Venue

The 6th DokuBaku IDFF is to be held in Baku, capital of Azerbaijan, on September 21-25, 2022.

The Venue of the Festival will be announced in the early September 2022, on www.dokubaku.az

1.3. The objectives of DokuBaku:

- Promote the development of an independent documentary film industry in Azerbaijan, encouraging local aspiring, amateur and professional filmmakers as well as cinema lovers;
- Create a platform for documentary films screening and exchange experience between local and international professionals;
- Support making new local documentaries;
- Promote the creation of potential international products.

REGULATIONS

DokuBaku IDFF 2022, 21-25 September

1.4. DokuBaku Organizing Committee:

Arrangement and administration of the Festival will be carried out by the organizing committee headed by the Festival director. The Committee Representatives are appointed by the Festival director. Organizing Committee is formed by the Director of the Festival and the Program Manager.

1.5. Selection Committee:

The films submitted to the Festival are selected by the Selection committee. Selection committee consists of independent Azerbaijani and foreign professionals.

All members of the Selection committee (including election director) is selected by the Organizing Committee. The Selection committee is headed by election director of the Festival.

The decisions of the Selection Committee are final and come into force immediately after their adoption and assent.

2. Program

2.1. The Festival program consists of two main sections:

- Full Documentary Competition (Main Section)
- Short Documentary Film Competition

International films from all over the world and local films may be submitted for competition in different categories.

Submission in most categories is chargeable.

The films are assessed by the Jury of the Main and Short Film Contests appointed by the Organizing Committee in an apart competition for the local films.

The number of sections of the Festival program may vary yearly.

The number of films selected may be increased and reduced upon the decision of the Organizing Committee.

The program of the Festival is to be published in early August 2022, via www.dokubaku.az after the list of finalist is announced.

Festival only contacts with the submitters of selected films on the Program.

Submitted films for the inclusion to the Festival program (each year chosen by the Organizing Committee) should be corresponded to the topic of the Festival. The topic of 2022 is "RE=MC2VOLUTION/OFF".

2.2. Competition Program:

The competition program consists of:

The Main Contest - Full-Length documentaries - over 45 minutes

Short Film Competition - Short documentaries - up to 45 minutes

REGULATIONS

DokuBaku IDFF 2022, 21-25 September

2.3. Out-of-Competition Program:

Out-of-competition program is compiled by the Organizing Committee.

Within the non-competition program, thematic (corresponding to the main topic), as well as retrospective films' screening can be taken into account before or after the Festival. The Festival covers Baku and the regions of Azerbaijan.

2.4. Master-classes:

Arranging 3-5-days workshops are considered for local cinemagoers, amateur or professionals who wants to shoot a film.

2.5. Accompaniment Program (side events):

The accompanying program can include exhibitions, performances, concerts, creativity nights and other events related to documentary film section.

3. Submission guidelines

3.1. Admission Requirements for the Competition Program:

Applicants can submit their application via <https://filmfreeway.com/DBIDFF> until the 12 July 2022 for participating in the Festival.

The submitted films should comply with the following requirements for the participation at the 6th edition of DokuBaku IDFF:

The production date of the film should be no earlier than January 1, 2021.

The film should not be in a TV-format, "talking heads", voice over, informational, portrait, interview-reportage, advertisement etc., or in a similar format.

The following films are accepted for the Festival:

- films that solve or show ways to solve some of the most important social, political, global problems, but not in the TV documentaries films style,
- film-essay,
- experimental films,
- artistic "non-fiction" films with a powerful, strong story, a film of human fate.

The person who presented the film (director, producer, or other authorized person) informs that he/she is entitled to have the right on the film and plenipotentiary to the screening of the film in the Festival.

All films in order to screen in the Festival are accepted digitally in accordance with technical parameters that mentioned in the "Application Form":

In 2022, each participant is able to send only one film to the Festival;

The selection committee has a right to define films independently that presented to the Festival under one or another program, category or section and inform the film's authorized representatives about it in advance.

REGULATIONS

DokuBaku IDFF 2022, 21-25 September

All films participating in the competition will be screened in their original language, with Azerbaijani and English subtitles. The authors shall also provide subtitles in English with the film.

Notification on selected films will be announced on August 02, 2022 on the Festival's website and social media. The submitters will also be informed via email.

3.2. Copyright:

The Festival participant (director, producer, or other authorized person) is considered to agree the realization of following rights by submitting films to DokuBaku:

- Screening of the film by agreement of both parties within or outside the Festival;
- Using parts of the documentary in the festival's commercials, videos and television reports, as well as other audiovisual products aimed at broadcasting the Festival;
- Using the frames and characters in the public materials (catalog, site, etc.) of the Festival;
- Keeping the film in the archives of the Festival.

The copyright of the competition films is regulated in accordance of the legislation of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

3.3. Participant obligations:

The authors of the program will be contacted and additional materials (photos, information on a film, director, etc.) will be required for the catalog of the Festival.

After announcing the program, the film submitter or other person holding the rights, cannot withdraw the film from the program or apply for a film retracting.

The films selected by the Festival must remain strictly confidential between the Festival Management and the Participant until the Festival decides to make an official announcement in this regard.

Only the festival organizer reserves the right to make any advertisement.

Note: Authors of selected films can participate in the Festival voluntarily. Therefore, they can contact the embassy of their country in Azerbaijan for assistance or additional information. Please, take into account that the Festival is realized by cinema lover volunteers and professionals filmmakers. The Festival is not intended to make a profit.

4. Awards

The Jury members select the winners in five categories.

- * Best Documentary Film
- * Best Short Documentary
- * Best Local Documentary
- * Best Documentary for Kids (DokuKids)
- * Best No Main Competition #NewEYE

REGULATIONS

DokuBaku IDFF 2022, 21-25 September

The “Audience Award” is selected by the audience attending the Festival, rather than by the Festival jury or a group of critics.

The 6th edition of DokuBaku IDFF does not intend to establish cash prizes. Organizing Committee and founders retain a right to change this decision during the Festival. Furthermore, the Organizing Committee may provide the right to sponsors to establish their own award. The winners are announced by the Jury or Organizing Committee at the Closing Ceremony.

5. The Jury/ Audience

5.1. The Jury:

International jury is elected by the Organizing Committee. The jury selects winners in five categories. The jury consists of 3-5 persons in each category. In all sections - full-length and short-length film contests- jury is selected from local and international film industry.

The Organizing Committee and the Election Commission may participate in the discussions of the jury without the right to vote.

5.2. Audience:

DokuBaku is a public Festival. DokuBaku’s public audience includes ticket buyers, or those invited by the Festival organizers.

5.3. Guests of the Festival:

DokuBaku IDFF organizers do not undertake expenses of Festival guests and participants in 2022. During the organization of the Festival, the Organizing Committee and Founders reserve the right to change this rule for some guests.

Only the festival organizer reserves the right to make any advertisement.

6. Conclusion/ Final provisions

These Regulations are compiled in the Azerbaijani and English languages.

The text in the Azerbaijani language is preferred when there is a contradiction among the texts of the regulations. Participation in DokuBaku IDFF involves accepting the terms and conditions unquestionably that is used in this Regulation. Any questions and disputes arising during the preparation and implementation of the Festival are resolved amicably by the Festival Organizer on the basis of mutual consent. If an amicably settlement of disputes is not achieved, any dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

See You at DokuBaku IDFF 2022!